

Plaque of Recognition from UP NISMED, Philippines, at the 50th Anniversary

(2014.11.20)

The University of the Philippines National Institute for Science and Mathematics Education Development (UP NISMED) awarded a plaque of recognition to Professor Masami Isoda for initiating the collaboration between the Center for Research on International Cooperation in Educational Development (CRICED), University of Tsukuba and UP NISMED. Professor Isoda continues to collaborate with UP NISMED in the upgrading of mathematics education in the Philippines. Professor Isoda unselfishly shared his expertise on mathematics education through projects on lesson study and the development of mathematics print and e-textbooks.

Professor Isoda was one of the distinguished awardees during the Recognition and Awarding Ceremony of UP NISMED's Pillars, Partners, and Friends. The ceremony was part of the Institute's celebration of its 50th anniversary, which was held on 20 November 2014 at the UP NISMED Auditorium.
