

筑波大学
University of Tsukuba

SEAMEO-The University of Tsukuba Symposium IX

Theme: Resilience for Global Citizenship

Sub-Theme: Challenges in Education under COVID-19

Cambodia Response to COVID-19

Songheang Ai, PhD

Center Director of SEAMEO TED

song.heang@yahoo.com

February 11, 2021

Virtual

11 February 2021

Contents

I. Global Citizenship

II. Covid-19 Response

筑波大学
University of Tsukuba

I. Global Citizenship

- It respects and values diversity, participating in the community, willing to act to make the globe equitable and sustainable place.
- Online MoU and cooperation
- SEA Vocational-Technical High School Network (9 countries, 70 schools)
- Online meeting and training programs (What's up group)
- Virtual school visits as video clips, ...
- Webinar on best practice sharing in March 2021

II. Covid-19 Response

❖ Supplies and provision of educational materials, protective kits, ...

❖ Many school guidelines, policies, and procedures

❖ Social media platform: Televisions, Facebooks, Websites, Video clips, BEEP ...

❖ Provision of Cash transfer programs

❖ Provision of school meals for vulnerability families

❖ 75$ for an infected person during a quarantine period

❖ School re-opening guidelines with 3 phases

❖ Social media: Posters, banners, songs, messaging, video clips...

❖ School re-opening committees at national and sub-national level

❖ Shortening curriculum for secondary education level

❖ Steering committees at national and sub-national levels.

❖ Work-from-home approaches

